

II. Induction Techniques Phase I

A. Physical Relaxation

2. Deliberate Tension and Relaxation

We will move our awareness into the body to release trapped energy and move deeper into total relaxation.

Those with cardiac disease, hypertension, glaucoma should use caution. If you cannot have undue pressure in the head for any reason, it is important that you breathe normally as you tense the body.

Upper Body:

- As you inhale, make fists and deliberately induce stiffness and tension throughout your shoulders, arms and fists.
 - Tighten...tighten...even more.
 - Now let go completely. Relax.
 - On your next exhalation, relax even more. Let go.
 - Observe and feel the flood of energy in your arms.....
- (pause.....)

Lower Body:

- This time as you inhale, deliberately induce stiffness and tension in hips, legs and feet.
 - Tighten...tighten...hold..hold.
 - Let go. Let go completely. Relax.
 - Observe the flood of energy in your legs.....
- (pause.....)

Whole Body:

- This time tighten and tense the entire body as you inhale: arms, hands, shoulders, feet, legs, face, buttocks.
 - Tighten...tighten...hold hold.
 - Now let go completely. Relax.
 - On your next exhalation let go even more.
 - Observe and the flood of energy extending to all the muscles, nerves and cells of your entire body.
 - Let your whole body melt into the flood of energy you feel in your body.
 - Let your body go limp.....like a rag doll...relax even more.
 - Release any holding..... anywhere.

3. Asanas

Neck Rolls

- Keep the neck and head in alignment with the chest..... inhale fully and
- Exhaling, gently press your right ear towards the right shoulder.
- Be aware of any resistance, or tension, not choosing for or against. Just be aware of its presence.
- Inhaling, return to center; exhaling, press the left ear towards the left shoulder.
- Again just take notice of any sensation in the area.
- Inhaling, return to center....exhaling, slowly press the chin to the chest.
- Noticing any stretch in the back of the neck or top of the shoulders, breathe into it relax the muscles around the area, and let go...

- Inhaling, return to center and exhaling press the head back slowly feeling the stretch in the throat.

- Do not pull or force. Breathe fully into sensations that arise in the body.
- Extend from your lower back.
- Let your stretching be deliberate and conscious; moving beyond your habitual limits.
- Pull the abdomen in and extend the chest and torso further forward.
- Move deeper into your body and discover the subtle layers of tension. Experience the release of trapped energy. Be deliberate as you move deeper into the experience.
- As you exhale, relax your head and lower your forehead towards your knees.
- Use breath to help you open your body fully and melt away stress in all its forms.
- Allow yourself to feel fully.
- To release, extend through the spine, arms and fingertips.
- Rise up slowly with arms extended overhead, palms facing each other.
- Extend your arms out in front of you and lower your palms to your thighs.
- Close your eyes and relax into sensation.
- Breathe fully and let go more deeply with each exhalation.

 - Let your whole body melt into stillness....
 - Release any holding anywhere in the body.
 - Become aware of the energy that has been released in the body.
 - Merge into this ocean of energy.
 - Let it flow into any holdings in the body, physical, mental and emotional, bringing you into the deepest state of balance and relaxation. (Pause.)

4. Phrasing for the Second Half of the Pose

- Submerge yourself into the sensations that are present in the posture.
- Immerse yourself fully in the feeling that is present.
- Remember that you are exercising your awareness and increasing your sensitivity as well as exercising your body.
- As you encounter your physical boundary use it to discover the invisible psychic boundary that lies behind it.
- Encounter your deliberate deepening stretch with detached attention.
- Become more fully engaged in experiencing the stretch rather than resisting or reacting to it.
- Breathe into the stretch, let it release defensive tension and create an opening for you to go deeper and release hidden tensions and blocks.
- Sense all sensations, feel all that is revealed, resist nothing, hold onto nothing, remain witness to all that is in passing.
- Pay close detached attention to every movement and every sensation that accompanies it.
- Choice for or against what is present in the form of sensation creates tension and conflict. Choice creates duality; choiceless awareness creates unity.
- When you are totally absorbed and fully engaged in the flood of energy, the Presence appears.
- The posture is not a means to an end. It is the end in itself. It moves from moment to moment deeply engaged fulfilling movement from moment to moment.
- Feel your feeling more fully. Do not think about it. Thinking makes it mind modified feeling and purity is lost.

- The more you can focus on your feeling, the stronger and clearer it will become.
 - As your focus and feeling grows stronger and gains momentum it will penetrate and permeate every muscle, cell, nerve.
 - Bring your expanding field of sensitivity to the areas in your body that are depleted, starved and less sensitive.

B. Prana/Energy Awareness

1. Palming the Face

- Maintaining this inner awareness, gently begin rubbing the palms together.
 - Now place your fingertips on your eyelids. The entire surface of the palms touching your face.
 - Start now by massaging the face.
 - The fingers working from the eyebrows up to the hairline, moving out to the temples-- circling the fingers at the temples.
 - Moving down to the joint of the jaw, along the jawline to the chin.
 - Massage around the parentheses of the mouth, up to the bridge of the nose, around the orbits of the eyes.
 - Moving to the ears, pulling down in front of and behind the ears, and maybe even a gentle pull on the earlobes. Feeling tensions and holding melt away.
 - Squeeze the back of the neck, and maybe even the shoulders.
 - Now, place the entire surface of the palms on the face, fingertips on the eyelids.
 - Drop all expression from the face.
 - Take a deep breath in and let go.
 - Take another deep breath in and let go even more.
 - Release your arms to your sides.
 - Feel the impact flooding the whole body and the entire being. Bathe in the sensations.

2. Bumblebee Breath

I will guide you in the next phase to enter into deeper and subtler levels of relaxation through the bumblebee sound and breath.

- Use your thumbs to gently close your ears, just tight enough so that you can still hear me. Rest the remaining fingers on either side of the forehead.
 - Now, take a breath in and follow me.....Mmmmmmmmm (Allow up to 7 breaths.)
 - Now stopbring your arms by your side... and be still.
 - Bring your total undivided attention to your whole body.
 - Feel the stimulating impact of the vibrations extending throughout your whole body.
 - Notice how your attention feeds your energy.
 - Observe your energy field expand and grow, extending everywhere and filling every nerve and cell of your body...
 - Now bring your attention to the eyebrow center...
 - And empty your mind into the flood of energy.
 - Let it melt and merge into the experience of the energy body expanding beyond all boundaries.
 - Drop into complete silence and deep stillness.
